

Media consolidation is threatening our democracy.
How dare a media company like Sinclair Broadcasting air an anti-Kerry documentary so near the election and call it news?

Rather this biased show is a multi-million contribution to the Bush campaign.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.
Sinclair is not serving the public interest by forcing stations in communities throughout the U.S. to air this show.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
